

PRAY FOR

Vicar Joshua Wareham

Vicar

Serving the Lord in the Dominican Republic

Vicar Joshua Wareham serves the Lord in the Dominican Republic, where he is spending his vicarage before returning to Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, to complete his fourth year of seminary. His responsibilities as vicar include preaching and helping lead worship services, teaching catechism classes and Bible studies, and assisting in ongoing evangelism and outreach activities. He also encourages other local pastoral candidates with a clear example of the training process for pastoral ministry.

Joshua was born in Acworth, Ga. He studied education at Concordia University Chicago, River Forest, Ill., and is currently studying for his Master of Divinity at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. Prior to entering seminary, Joshua worked as a cook at Waffle House and Panda Express. He also served as a middle school English teacher in Eustis, Fla., for five years and a middle school language arts teacher in Jos, Nigeria, for two years. His hobbies include fishing, hunting, camping, hiking and doing anything outdoors.

Please pray for Joshua as he serves in the Dominican Republic. Pray for patience and guidance as Joshua learns many new things, like a new language and a different culture. Pray for endurance and strength as he takes on many new responsibilities. Pray that the Holy Spirit works through Joshua as he shares God's Word, that all may know Christ and come to saving faith through Him.
