

PRAY FOR Vicar Peter Williams

Vicar
Serving the Lord in Germany

Vicar Peter Williams serves the Lord through The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) as a missionary in Kaiserslautern, Germany. As a vicar in the international mission field, Peter assists the lead pastor of Kaiserslautern Evangelical Lutheran Church, which serves U.S. military members stationed in the area as well as other English speakers. Peter is involved in several parish activities, including preaching, teaching and visiting members of the church. He also is active in regional mission work, especially in the French and Farsi languages.

Peter is from San José, Calif., where his home congregation is First Immanuel Lutheran Church. He has a bachelor's degree in French and history from San José State University and is currently pursuing a Master of Divinity from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. Prior to serving in Germany, Peter worked in the Parks and Recreation Department for the City of San José and in after-school care at the French American School of Silicon Valley in Cupertino, Calif. Peter is also a chaplain candidate in the U.S. Army Reserves. In his free time, Peter enjoys reading and playing baseball and soccer.

Pray for Peter as he serves in Germany. Pray for patience and guidance as he learns many new things and takes on many new responsibilities. Ask God to give him wisdom and safety as he adjusts to life in this new country. Pray also that the Holy Spirit would work through Peter as he shares the Gospel with everyone he meets. Give thanks to God for sending Peter to serve His children in this part of the world.
