Behold!

And he shall
be their peace.
(Micah 5:5)

A dark grey silhouette of a city skyline is positioned in the lower right quadrant of the poster. It features several rectangular buildings of different heights and widths, with small white squares indicating windows or architectural details.

Christ is our peace.
Come join us to receive His forgiveness, life and salvation.
