CHRIST IS HERE

Jesus is the blameless one who makes us worthy to stand in God's presence. He covers us with His blood and declares us righteous and blameless.

The opening of the psalm poses a question that the rest of the psalm must answer: who can stand in God's holy presence? One who does what is right and does not do what is wrong; who walks blamelessly and speaks the truth; who does not slander, do evil to his neighbor or take up a reproach against him. The psalm is not telling us how to save ourselves, but points us to Christ. He ascended the holy hill of Golgotha to save us. The one who trusts in Christ's righteousness bears the fruits of righteousness that the psalm describes. The Christian can make a beginning in these things because the Holy Spirit works to create a heart that desires to live in conformity to God's Law. The one who clings to Jesus by faith will strive to walk blamelessly in word and deed for the glory of God and the good of his neighbor. Psalm 15 is a beautiful description of the Christian life, the life of one whose sins are forgiven in Christ.

PSALM PRAYER

O Christ, Son of God, have mercy on our humility. By the deceit of the traitor disciple, You were handed over to suffering and death. In Your innocence You were sold for money. Grant that we may never deceive our neighbors by perjury, nor injure ourselves by evil habits, but following the example of Your patience we may prevail against our enemies both external and internal; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
