* Chart A - Like many LCMS districts, the Ohio District has experienced a gradual decline in baptized and confirmed membership, while increasing in total congregations.

* Chart A - In recent years, that decline in membership has accelerated.

* Chart B - Over the past few decades, the number of parish pastors remained closely linked to the number of congregations, but in the past few years there has been an increasing gap between the two.