Presidential Proclamation

Whereas, God loves us and sent His Son to be our Savior; and

Whereas, “The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Matt. 20:28); and

Whereas, Lutheran school teachers and students rejoice in this Good News of God’s love in Christ Jesus; and

Whereas, We are all called to “serve one another” through love (Gal. 5:13); and

Whereas, Lutheran schools prepare children for their individual callings to serve God and their neighbor; and

Whereas, Each baptized child of God is sent forth to serve their neighbor with the love of God in Christ; and

Whereas, Christ’s love compels us to live for others (2 Cor. 5:14–15); and

Whereas, God’s gifts of creation are given to us for the benefit of our neighbor; and

Whereas, Lutheran schools instruct people to serve God and His people with those gifts; and

Whereas, During National Lutheran Schools Week, we rejoice that we are all “Sent to Serve”; therefore, be it

Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Harrison
President, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod