A Vigil of Repentance in Remembrance of the Victims of Abortion
A VIGIL OF REPENTANCE

Worshippers enter in silence.

The bell(s) may be tolled in memory of the children slain, both unborn and newly born.

_L_ O Lord, open my lips.
_R_ and my mouth will declare Your praise.

_L_ Make haste, O God, to deliver me;
_R_ make haste to help me, O Lord.
_R_ Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. Praise to You, O Christ, Lamb of our salvation.

_L_ The Lord be with you.
_R_ And also with you.

_L_ Let us pray. Gracious Father, as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are Your ways higher than our ways and Your thoughts higher than our thoughts. We do not understand the disregard for the work of Your hands and the wanton destruction of human life that has taken place these past years through the atrocity of abortion. But we are not here to understand. We are here to remember. We are not here to understand. We are here to trust in You. Help us remember. Help us trust. In Jesus holy name.
_R_ Amen.

Hymn

“Lord, Keep Us Steadfast in Your Word” LSB 655

Reading

Exodus 1:15–22

Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, “When you serve as midwife to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him, but if it is a daughter, she shall live.” But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. So the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this, and let the male children live?” The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.” So God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and grew very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, “Every son that is born to the Hebrews you shall cast into the Nile, but you shall let every daughter live.”

_L_ O Lord, have mercy on us.
_R_ Thanks be to God.

Matthew 2:16–18

Then Herod, when he saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, became furious, and he sent and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that region who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had ascertained from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah:

“A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more.”

L O Lord, have mercy on us.
R Thanks be to God.

Dialog of Sorrow and Hope

L “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more.”
R “For you are the God in whom I take refuge; why have you rejected me? Why do I go about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?” (Psalm 43:2)

L “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more.”
R “I say to God, my rock: ‘Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?’” (Psalm 42:9)

L “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more.”
R “My eyes long for your promise; I ask, ‘When will you comfort me?’” (Psalm 119:82)

L “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more.”
R “My soul melts away for sorrow; strengthen me according to your word!” (Psalm 119:28)

L “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.” (Matthew 5:4)
R “Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress.” (Psalm 31:9a)

L “Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy.” (John 16:20)
R “My eye wastes away because of grief; it grows weak because of all my foes.” (Psalm 6:7)

L “‘Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, for there is a reward for your work,’ declares the LORD” (Jeremiah 31:16)
R “Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.” (Psalm 23:4)

L “And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.” (Isaiah 35:10) “He who testifies to these things says, ‘Surely I am coming soon.’” (Revelation 22:20a)
R “Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!” (Revelation 22:20b)
Litany of Remembrance

L Millions of babies have been murdered through abortion. This is incomprehensible. Perhaps that is why we do not mourn for them as a nation the way we mourn for children lost in tragic accidents or natural disasters. But let us remember them. Let us remember them as the individuals they were. Let us remember them as gifts from God whose lives were cut short before they could serve Him according to the purpose for which they were created.

A brief silence is observed after each petition.

L Let us remember the sons and daughters that were never born.
R Little arms that never stretched out asking to be held.

A brief silence is observed after each petition.
Let us remember those who would have been born into, “less than desirable circumstances.”

Opportunities for God to shape and form and do mighty things through suffering—taken away.

Millions—all individuals, all gifts from God, all capable of being used by God for His purpose, all deprived of the first and most fundamental right—the right to life.

Most tragic of all, individuals for whom Christ died who would never be able to hear of His precious love.

There are other victims of abortion, victims who have not died, but who have been wounded. Let us remember the mothers of aborted children who, in weakness, desperation and fear, listened to the voices of death.

Lift their hearts to You, O God, that they might know the sin of abortion, lay their burden at the foot of the cross and receive forgiveness and hope in Jesus Christ.

Let us remember the fathers of aborted children who, unwilling or unable to protect a defenseless life, are in conflict with their responsibility to their preborn child, to the mother of that child, and to God.

Lift their hearts to You, O God, that they might know the sin of abortion, lay their burden at the foot of the cross and receive forgiveness and hope in Jesus Christ.

We remember grandparents of aborted children who, unable or unwilling to protect a defenseless life, are in conflict with both their conscience and God.

Lift their hearts to You, O God, that they might know the sin of abortion, lay their burden at the foot of the cross and receive forgiveness and hope in Jesus Christ.

Let us remember the doctors, counselors, and all who have been deceived by Satan to see abortion as a solution to difficult problems of life.

Lift their hearts to You, O God, that they might know the sin of abortion, lay their burden at the foot of the cross and receive forgiveness and hope in Jesus Christ.

Let us remember ourselves, members of the Body of Christ, who in ignorance or fear have been silent when we should have spoken; passive when we should have acted to defend the “least of these.”

Lift our hearts to You, O God, that we might know the sin of abortion, lay our burden at the foot of the cross and receive forgiveness and hope in Jesus Christ.
Hymn

“Shepherd of Tender Youth” LSB 864

1. Shepherd of tender youth, Guiding in love and truth, Through devious ways; Christ, our triphant king, We come Your name to sing. And here our children bring To join Your praise.

2. You are the holy Lord, O all-sublime. Daring Word, Healer of strife. Your self You did a base That from sin’s deep disgrace. Christ of God, By Your endur-ing Word

3. You are the great High Priest; You have prepared the feast Of holy love; And in our pride, Our staff and song. Jesus, O moral pain None calls on You in vain. Christ's first and best in Christ Jesus.

4. O ever be our guide, Our shepherd. Unprepare the feast Of holy love; And in our pride, Our staff and song. Jesus, O moral pain None calls on You in vain. Christ's first and best in Christ Jesus.

5. So now, and till we die, Sound we Your praises high
   And joyful sing:
   Infants and all the throng,
   Who to the Church belong,
   Unite to swell the song
   To Christ, our king!

Sermon

A Rite of Hope and Comfort

L One of the reasons to remember past tragedy is so that it will not be repeated. One of the reasons to remember tragedy that still continues is so that we can be motivated to bring it to an end. Let us give an offering in memory of those millions of babies. Let us offer ourselves.

R Our Father in heaven, we offer ourselves to You and ask that You use the varied gifts You have given us to serve You in Your Kingdom. Particularly today we ask that You give us the opportunities and the willingness to use our gifts to witness, in word and deed, to the sacredness of life. Help us speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. Help us defend those who cannot defend themselves. Help us love and support those facing difficult life choices. Help us love and forgive and bring the healing of the Gospel to those who have made wrong choices. We offer ourselves so that others may see and give glory to You through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

L When filled with grief, we turn to God for comfort and reassurance, which can come only from Him. He does not explain to us why He allows the modern-day slaughter of the innocents in the womb. He does call us in faith, in the midst of the darkness of abortion, to acknowledge Him to be our heavenly Father, who has given us His first and best in Christ Jesus.

R “What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?” (Romans 8:31-32)

L Our grief over abortion is compounded because abortion deprives children of the opportunity for Holy Baptism and, therefore, raises painful questions we cannot answer with certainty. We entrust such questions and the hurting hearts which ask them to the infinite compassion and wisdom of our God.

R “Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?” (Romans 11:33-34)
Because of what we do not know, our grief is heavy, but we do not grieve as those who have no hope. Our hope lies in what we do know. We know we are loved.

“I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.” (Jeremiah 31:3b)

We know we are forgiven.

“God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:8) “In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.” (1 John 4:10)

We know we are not forsaken.

“Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go.” (Genesis 28:15a)

We know God is always at work for our good.

“And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.” (Romans 8:28)

In God’s love, in God’s forgiveness, in God’s presence, in God’s goodness is our comfort and hope.

“But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 15:57)

Let us pray for our nation, a nation richly blessed by God, but a nation that tragically sanctions the murder of so many children.

Lord, have mercy upon our nation and change our hearts.

A brief silence is observed after each petition.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. We pray for the Church, a Church richly blessed by God’s grace, but too often silent as the innocent are being slaughtered.

Lord, have mercy upon Your Church and change our hearts.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. We pray for women and men struggling with a crisis pregnancy.

Lord, have mercy upon them and help them choose life and help us support them.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Let us pray for mothers and fathers who are suffering the aftermath of an abortion. They, too, are its victims.

Lord, have mercy upon them and help them find healing in the cross of Jesus and help us share this forgiving love with them.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Let us pray for children, born and unborn.

Lord, have mercy upon the children and in Your grace bring them to the fullness of life that You have promised in Your Son.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. As we remember the children whose lips never had a chance to speak it, we pray the Lord’s prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven . . .
