Analysis of the South Wisconsin District Charts

* Chart A - While increasing the total number of congregations, the South Wisconsin district has been steadily losing members over the past few decades.
* Chart B - Unlike most districts, the number of parish pastors in South Wisconsin has remained close to the number of congregations, and has even been greater than the number of congregations at several points (including currently).
* Chart C - Giving in South Wisconsin has also closely followed the membership numbers, though it was boosted by a surge in 2000.
