Analysis of the Rocky Mountain District Charts

* All Charts - In 1983, the Colorado District became the Rocky Mountain District.

* Chart A - While increasing significantly in total congregations until only recently, the Rocky Mountain District has been declining in both baptized and confirmed members for over a decade.

* Chart C - Overall, giving in the Rocky Mountain District has increased over the years, even when adjusting for inflation, however, there was a noticeable surge in 2000 with a subsequent drop in 2002 that may be due to anomalous data.
