This appendix has been designed for creating a student booklet and two-sided character cards. Printing instructions for both can be found below.

The booklet is to be kept in the classroom for daily use and turned in at the end of each day. The students can use the check list as they visit the various stations.

The character cards can be printed and given away daily as a student reminder of that day’s Bible lesson. Some camps like to have a carabiner clip or key ring they can add them to daily and then students take the whole set home at the end of the week. The cards are meant to be two-sided with the characters on the front, the Bible verse on the back and space for a hole at the top for a ring or clip.

Printing and assembly instructions for booklet:
1. Set to print pages 2 through 7.
2. Set to two-sided printing.
3. Set binding location to long side.
4. Print, fold, nest and staple

Printing and assembly instructions for character cards:
1. Set to print pages 8 through 11.
2. Set to two-sided printing.
3. Cut along lines to create individual cards.

Bible Lesson

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

Before Jesus returned to heaven to be with His Father, He told His disciples to wait in Jerusalem for a special gift from God, the gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts chapter 1 verses 4 and 5).

So the disciples, along with many other believers, waited in a large room in Jerusalem for the promise to be fulfilled. On the day of Pentecost, while they were all gathered together in prayer, there was a great noise from Heaven, like a strong wind blowing that filled the whole room and they saw what appeared like small flames of fire resting on each person there.

All of the believers who were present were filled with the Holy Spirit (Acts chapter 2 verses 1 to 4). And as Jesus had promised, through the gift of the Holy Spirit they were given power from heaven to be His witnesses throughout the entire world.

That was an important day for the young church and the beginning of many great adventures as God worked through Jesus' followers. Many of these exciting stories are recorded for you to read in the book of Acts. And God's mighty works didn't stop there. He has been doing mighty deeds through the followers of Jesus throughout the centuries, and continues to do so today!

Bible Lesson

Philip and the Ethiopian

Philip, one of the men chosen by the apostles to help with the care of the church, (see Acts chapter 6, verses 1 to 7) was visited by an angel who told him to go to a certain place south of Jerusalem. Philip obeyed and journeyed to the area where he observed a man reading a text while sitting in a chariot. The man was the treasurer of Queen Candace, the queen of Ethiopia, and was returning home after having been in Jerusalem to worship. When Philip saw him, he was sitting in his chariot reading in the book of Isaiah in chapter 53. Philip asked him, "Do you understand what you are reading." The man answered, "I don't know, can you explain the text to me?" So Philip sat with him and told him the Good News of Jesus. Then Philip baptized the Ethiopian man.

After this, Philip was suddenly taken away by the Spirit of the Lord, and the man from Ethiopia "went on his way rejoicing." You can read this story in Acts chapter 8, verses 26 to 40.
The Road to Damascus

After the miracle by the temple gate when the lame man was healed, Peter and John and the other apostles continued to preach the Good News about Jesus to all in Jerusalem. Many people believed and were added to the young Church. Some became jealous of the apostles and had them put in the public jail. But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison gates, led them out and told the Apostles: “Go and tell the people all about this new life” (Acts 5:17–25).

Persecution continued in Jerusalem and many believers had to flee the city. (Acts 8:1–4.) But one man was set on arresting as many believers as possible, and even asked for letters of recommendation to go to Damascus to arrest and bring back many of the believers to Jerusalem. His name was Saul of Tarsus.

Saul was interrupted on his journey to Damascus, when suddenly a light from heaven shone around him that was so bright it caused him to fall to the ground. And he heard a voice saying “Saul, Saul! Why do you persecute Me?” Saul answered, “Who are you, Lord?” The voice answered “I am Jesus, whom you persecute. Get up and go to the city where you will be told what you must do.” (Acts 9: 1–9.)

On a missionary journey, Paul and Silas travelled to Macedonia. While preaching there, a slave woman who was a fortune teller followed them everywhere they went, while shouting about them being servants of God. Paul, disturbed by her continual shouting, commanded the evil spirit to come out of her, and she was instantly freed of the spirit. However, when her masters found out, they were angry because they could no longer make money by using her to tell fortunes.

The woman's master grabbed Paul and Silas and took them to the magistrate, where they were accused of disturbing the peace of the city. The magistrate found Paul and Silas guilty and had them thrown into jail. But though in jail, Paul and Silas continued to trust God and were singing hymns and songs of praise. Suddenly, an earthquake shook the prison and their chains fell off and the prison doors were opened.

The prison guard was very frightened and thought all the prisoners had escape, but Paul comforted him that they were still there, and then prayed for the guard, who believed and was saved and all his family.

What another wonderful miracle of God's protection and help. Do read this amazing story in Acts chapter 16.
